SPRING OPENING OF OUR DRESS-MAKING ROOMS

Miss TRIMBLE and Mr. W. K. McFARLAND have returned from New York and will receive their friends in the newly-furnished Dress-making Rooms on the Fifth Floor, beginning TO-MORROW MORNING, at 9 o'clock.

Miss Trimble is a most skillful designer and fitter. She also has that exceptional advantage, the art of blending colors. Mr. W. R. McFarland was formerly in Chicago, and recently has made a local reputation in the Dress-making Department of L. S. Ayres & Co. He is conceded to be one of the most artistic and successful Ladies' Tailors in this country. While in the East Miss Trimble and Mr. McFarland made a careful study of the latest importations of Pattern Dresses, and selected the finest and largest invoice of Dress Materials and Trimmings Indiana has ever seen.

We shall open to-morrow, in the Dress-making rooms on the Fifth Floor,

A WONDROUS DISPLAY OF PATTERN ROBES

Of Silk and Wool, and an exhibition of Dress Fabrics larger and finer than has ever been attempted in the West. Mr. McFarland's specialties will be Tailor-made Costumes, Jackets and Traveling Dusters. Our Bodice, Sleeve and Shirt hands are of the best, and we can assure our patrons perfect satisfaction.

WEDDING TROUSSEAUS.

We shall make a special exhibit of Bridal Outfits, and shall show some most richly beautiful Dresses in costly Silks. A room will be devoted to this display, and great care has been taken in draping so that the effect is perfect. Flowers and tropical plants will add to the bewitching display.
